THE FALL OF MANILLA

Believed to Include All the Philippines.

OFFICIAL ADVICES AWAITED

This Might Turn Out to Be a Most Important Factor.

MERRITT'S REPORT RECEIVED.

As It Was Made Out on the Day of the Surrender It Contains Little That Has Not Already Been Forwarded in Press Dispatches.

Washington, Aug. 19.—The war department made public the dispatch of General Merritt giving the official story of Manila's fall, as follows:

Manila, Aug. 13.—On the 7th inst. Admiral Dewey joined me in a 48-hour notification to the Spanish commanders to remove non-combatants from the city. On the same date a reply was received expressing thanks for our humane sentiments and stating the Spanish were without places of refuge or non-combatants now within the walled town.

On the 9th inst. we sent a joint note inviting attention to the suffering in store for the sick and non-combatants in case it became our duty to reduce the defenses; also setting forth the hopeless condition of the Spanish forces, which were surrounded on all sides and the fact in front, with no prospect of reinforcements, and demanded the surrender, as due to every consideration of humanity.

On the same date we received a reply admitting their situation, but stating that the council of defense declared the request for surrender could not be granted, but offered to consult the government if time was granted necessary for communication, via Hongkong.

We sent joint note in reply, declining. On the 13th I joined with the navy in an attack with the following result: After about half an hour's accurate shelling of Spanish lines, MacArthur's brigade on right and Green's on left, under Anderson, made a vigorous attack and carried the Spanish works.

Our loss is not accurately known, about 50 in all. Behavior of the troops was excellent and co-operation of the navy most valuable. Troops advanced rapidly on the walled city, upon which the white flag was shown and town capitulated.

Troops occupy Malate, Binondo and the walled city of San Miguel. All important centers protected. Insurgents kept out. No disorder or pillage.

The significant instructions sent General Merritt, requiring the insurgents and all others to recognize the authority of the United States in the territory occupied by our forces, were also made public, and are as follows:

Washington, Aug. 18.—The president directs that there must be no joint occupation with the insurgents.

The United States, in the possession of Manila city, Manila bay and harbor, must preserve the peace and protect persons and property within the territory occupied by their military and naval forces.

The insurgents and all others must recognize the military occupation and authority of the United States, and the cessation of hostilities proclaimed by the president.

Use whatever means in your judgment are necessary to this end. All law-abiding people must be treated alike.

By order secretary of war.

H. C. CORBIN.

Under the peace protocol the United States was given the occupation of Manila, with the bay and harbor, until a permanent disposition of the Philippine question was reached. But according to press dispatches, which are so circumstantial as to be credited in most official quarters, General Merritt and Admiral Dewey received the capitulation of the entire Philippine archipelago.

There appears to be some doubt, therefore, even among officials, as to whether our present authority and jurisdiction covers Manila only, as provided by the peace protocol, or covers all the Philippines, as provided by the reported terms of capitulation to Merritt and Dewey.

There is a disposition to await fuller official information before laying down a policy as to the extent of our jurisdiction in the islands.

Pending more definite information, the attitude of officials is to assume that our authority covers Manila city, Manila bay and harbor, and also such other territory as may be occupied by the military and naval forces. The latter phrase, is elastic enough to cover any or all of the Philippine islands that may have been brought under our authority by the recent surrender.

Under a Ban. San Francisco, Aug. 19.—The investigation set on foot by General Miller in the case of Thomas, the negro who was assaulted and whose home was partly demolished by Tennessee volunteers, is progressing. The freedom of passing in and out of the lines is still greatly curtailed to the detriment involved in the affair, and an extra guard patrols the presidio grounds and the adjacent streets. The regiment will, at its own expense, repair the damage done to the Thomas house.

Natives Massacred.

Ponce, Porto Rico, Aug. 19.—The rumors of a massacre at Ciales are confirmed. Some of the natives there took refuge in the belfry of the cathedral and fired on the Spanish troops, but they were overpowered and massacred to the number of 80.

Killed in Manila Battle.

San Francisco, Aug. 19.—A special dispatch from Manila, Aug. 14, gives the following names of those killed during the fighting, which preceded the occupation of that city: John Dunsmore, First California; Edward O'Neil, First California; Augustus Tholen, Twenty-third regulars; Archie Patterson, Thirteenth Minnesota; William Lewis, Nebraska regiment; Robert McCann, Fourteenth regulars; Samuel Howell, Fourteenth regulars; Captain Richter of the First California, wounded in the first attack of Manila, died on Aug. 4.

Kaiserin Augusta Will Return.

Berlin, Aug. 19.—A dispatch from Hongkong says: "The Kaiserin Augusta, which left Manila with dispatches from Admiral Von Dietrichs after the fall of the city, will return there. General Augustin and his family arrived on board the cruiser, Admiral Von Dietrichs, at the request of General Augustin, having given them passage by an arrangement with the American commander-in-chief. General Augustin has left Hongkong en route for Spain."

Will Return to Vermont.

Chickamauga, Ga., Aug. 19.—The First Vermont regiment is expected to break camp and leave Chickamauga for Fort Ethan Allen, Vt. The men have about completed their arrangements and all their baggage is aboard cars. The sick of the regiment, 41 in all, are en route home on Pullman cars. Colonel Mumms, who has been sick for some time, has so far recovered as to be able to resume command.

Will Go to Havana.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Rear Admiral Sampson's flagship, the armored cruiser New York, will be the first American warship to enter the harbor of Havana since war was declared. She will carry with her the members of the military commission appointed by the president to proceed to Havana to arrange with a similar commission to be appointed by Spain the details of the evacuation by the Spanish troops.

Sick Soldiers at Evansville.

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 19.—Fifty-six sick soldiers from the Fifty-second Iowa volunteers passed through the city on their way home from Chickamauga. They were in charge of the regimental surgeon and several commissioned officers who have resigned. The officers went to the hotel for dinner and the soldiers, many of them too sick to leave the train, were fed by Red Cross representatives.

Police Increased.

Santiago, Cuba, Aug. 19.—General Wood, military governor of Santiago, increased the local police force with additions from various regiments. There has been some trouble from soldiers who have disobeyed orders, and there have been some thefts, several street fights, at least one murder and a good deal of drunkenness, so that an exceptionally large force is needed to preserve order.

Censorship Removed.

New York, Aug. 19.—General Greely sent notification to the telegraph companies that censorship is raised on all commercial, code or cipher dispatches to and from Cuba, Porto Rico and all West India islands. In addition arrangements have been made with the Spanish government authorities whereby they agree to abolish similar restrictions on code messages in Cuba.

Preparing for "Next."

Washington, Aug. 19.—The ordnance bureau of the navy department opened bids for a large amount of heavy ordnance for the warships. These are for cast steel shells of the following dimensions: One thousand 13-inch, 1,000 12-inch and 600 10-inch; also forged steel shells as follows: Three thousand and 8-inch 5,000 6-inch, 5,000 4-inch and 5,000 5-inch.

Hospital Train.

Chickamauga, Ga., Aug. 19.—The sick soldiers of the Pennsylvania regiments are to be sent home in first class style. The excellently arranged hospital train from Philadelphia will arrive here soon, and the sick men, about 125 in all, will be put aboard it. The seats have been taken from the coaches and comfortable beds placed in their places.

Visited by the Governor.

Philadelphia, Aug. 19.—Governor H. S. Pingree of Michigan, accompanied by Quartermaster General White of the Michigan National Guard and several other officers of the state militia, arrived here.

rived here and visited the Michigan naval reserves on board the auxiliary cruiser Yosemite, now at League Island navy yard.

Wet Season Sets In.

Ponce, Porto Rico, Aug. 19.—The army is being re-vaccinated, as there is a smallpox epidemic in some portions of the island. The auxiliary cruiser Prairie left for Santiago to take troops to Montauk Point. The wet season has set in and there will be rains daily until the end of October.

Not a Shot at Dewey.

Manila, Aug. 19.—The American troops now occupy every position formerly held by the Spaniards. Not a single shot was fired at the fleet. Admiral Dewey picked up the end of the severed cable on Friday, but the line is not yet in working order.

The Minneapolis Arrives.

Philadelphia, Aug. 19.—The United States cruiser Minneapolis arrived at League Island navy yard. Eleven guns were fired as a salute to Commandant Casey of the navy yard, which was responded to by a captain's salute of nine guns.

Arguments in Courtmartial.

Camp Alger, Va., Aug. 19.—The entire time of the court martial in the Third Virginia case was consumed by arguments of attorneys. Mr. Moore and Attorney General Montague of Virginia appeared for Colonel Nalle and Brigadier General Gobin for General Butler. The counsel for Colonel Nalle argued that General Butler should have his sword broken for using profane language. General Gobin in reply pointed out the military law that where an officer uses profane language to a soldier the punishment is a fine of one dollar.

The Boys Coming Home.

Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 17, via Cape Haitien, Haiti, Aug. 19.—Colonel Ray's regiment arrived this morning. Two hundred and seventy-five light artillery men leave this afternoon for Guantanamo to be loaded on Resolute, and 200 of the Thirty-fourth Michigan to be loaded on Badger. SHAFTER.

Fiscal Agents For Porto Rico.

Washington, Aug. 19.—The firm of De Ford & Company of Boston has been designated by the president, until otherwise ordered, the fiscal agents of the United States in such parts of the island of Porto Rico as are now or may hereafter come under the military jurisdiction of the United States.

Tables Are Turned.

Ponce, Porto Rico, Aug. 19.—The natives show a disposition to "get even" with the Spanish residents and several minor riots have occurred here. At Yauco the natives threw stones and bricks into Spanish shops in retaliation for outrages committed within the Spanish lines.

Trying to Explain It.

Madrid, Aug. 19.—El Imparcial prints a remarkable article in which it attributes the country's disasters to administrative inefficiency caused by the existing political system which subordinates national interests to those of politicians and their friends.

Naval Fleet Coming North.

Washington, Aug. 19.—The naval fleet in southern waters is rapidly being moved north and the naval orders show that no less than 13 warships, mainly of the small auxiliary type, were ordered from Key West to Fort Monroe.

Will Sail For Honolulu.

San Francisco, Aug. 19.—Three hundred and twenty-five officers and men of the New York regiment have embarked on board the steamship Alliance and will sail for Honolulu.

Wisconsin Republican Ticket.

Milwaukee, Aug. 19.—Following is the Republican ticket complete: Governor, Edward Scofield; lieutenant governor, Jesse Stone; secretary of state, W. H. Forellch; treasurer, J. O. Davidson; attorney general, E. R. Hicks; superintendent of public instruction, L. D. Harvey; railroad commissioner, Graham L. Rice; insurance commissioner, Emil Giljohan.

Esterhazy Must Explain.

Paris, Aug. 19.—The minister of war, M. Godefroy Cafagniac, announced in the chamber of deputies that Commandante Comte Ferdinand Walsin Esterhazy, the alleged author of the bordereaux in the Dryfus case, will be summoned before a council of inquiry, whose position will be determined by the Paris military authorities.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 19.—Ex-Senator Blackburn says he will take an active part in the Kentucky campaign. He will not stump the Sixth district but will devote his attention to the Fourth, Ninth and Tenth. He may also speak at Covington, Louisville and Lexington.

IMPORTANT BEARING

On the Chinese Question Connected With Transfer of Cassini.

Washington, Aug. 19.—The report from London that Count Cassini, Russian ambassador here, will shortly be transferred to London, excited much interest in diplomatic quarters, as it was felt to have an important bearing on the Chinese question, which has recently reached an acute issue between Russia and Great Britain.

Count Cassini is probably the best posted public man of Russia concerning Chinese affairs, as he was for five years Russian ambassador at Peking, prior to coming to Washington.

It was during his service at Peking that Russia executed the coup of gaining Port Arthur and part of the Liao Tung peninsula.

The recent clash between Russia and Great Britain grew out of some of the British concessions made while Count Cassini was at Peking. His transfer to London will therefore give his government the advantage of having the negotiations with Great Britain conducted by a diplomat thoroughly conversant with the condition of Chinese affairs.

No More Bonds.

Washington, Aug. 19.—It is the opinion of the officials of the treasury department there will be no necessity for another bond issue growing out of the war, and that the present revenue law, with possibly slight modifications, should be retained on the statute books for an indefinite period.

Heavy Rains In Italy.

Trani, Italy, Aug. 19.—Heavy rains have flooded a large part of Trani. Many houses have fallen in, their occupants being obliged to take refuge in the public buildings. The authorities have ordered the troops to construct canals to drain the town.

Cargo on Fire.

Sourabaya, Java, Aug. 19.—The British vessel Turbo of 2,659 tons, which was to have sailed from Passaroeng, Java, on Aug. 7, for the United States, has been on fire and much damage was done to both vessel and cargo before the flames were extinguished.

The Lady Will Recover.

Philadelphia, Aug. 19.—John Hale, 21, of Ashland Heights, Montgomery county, shot and seriously wounded Ida Brown, his sweetheart, and then shot himself and died. The girl will recover. The shooting was the result of a lover's quarrel.

Tobacco Crop Damaged.

Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 19.—A series of terrific electrical storms, accompanied by high wind and heavy rain passed over this county doing great damage. Hail cut and riddled the tobacco most of which was almost ready to cut.

Two Men Killed.

Philadelphia, Aug. 19.—Two men were instantly killed, four probably fatally injured and two others seriously injured by the collapse of the cornice on the new building at 475 to 477 North Fifth street.

NOT QUITE ABDICATED.

Governor General Augusti Was Still In Charge.

HE WAS INSUBORDINATE.

Attempted to Resign in the Face of the Enemy.

MAY BE EXECUTED IN MADRID.

Wanted American Commanders to Remove the Women and Children From Manila at Expense of the United States Government.

Hongkong, Aug. 19.—A belated dispatch from Manila, dated August 8, explains that Governor General Augusti has "not quite abdicated" and says: "The governor general only declined to be responsible for the consequences when he found that Spain was not sending him help. He retained his position, but practically washed his hands of the fighting. A Madrid dispatch construes this as insubordination and the Gazette will now publish an order to supersede him."

"A telegram arrived Sunday, August 7, ordering the Americans to proceed immediately to extremities, whereupon General Merritt and Admiral Dewey issued an ultimatum, allowing 48 hours for the removal of non-combatants, but declaring that they would begin the bombardment earlier if the Spaniards made any attack."

"The governor replied immediately, thanking the American commanders for their humane sentiment but saying they were 'useless because he was surrounded with rebels and had no place of refuge for the great number of sick and wounded and women and children.'"

"The governor thereupon convened the consuls, begging them to use their influence with the Americans to get them to grant him time and facilities for the removal of the refugees and suggesting the use of the American troopships, but he was unwilling to allow them food from Manila. He seemed indifferent to the fate of the 100,000 natives."

"The British consul made a powerful appeal to the governor to surrender, glorifying the heroism hitherto shown by the Spanish, but demonstrating the hopelessness of further resistance. The other consuls endorsed his appeal, with the exception of the German consul, who said that, as a military officer, he should hesitate to assert that the Spaniards had done enough yet."

"In consequence of the American ultimatum, the governor ordered the artillery to cease shelling the enemy's trenches and he suspended an officer at Malate for disobeying his orders. There is still a little firing at night."

"A Spanish commercial deputation today waited upon the governor and begged him to surrender, saying that otherwise they would be utterly ruined. The civil members of the council of war favor a surrender, but the military members do not care to indorse such a request."

"Officers say they realize the futility of resisting the Americans, who, with their superior guns, can keep at long range and kill everybody, without loss to themselves, with probably a dozen shells."

"The British consul promptly arranged for four launches, under a white flag, to remove British subjects, and also for one launch for the Chinese. Swarms of Spanish and native half caste women and children are begging to be provided with means of escape."

"It is believed that the American gunners have been ordered to spare the churches, owing to the fact that thousands of persons have taken refuge in them."

"The ex-governor is trying to secure passage on a German warship."

All Want to Remain.

Washington, Aug. 19.—The war department has been trying to ascertain the wishes of the troops as to being mustered out, it being the object to accommodate the troops as far as possible. Up to the present time it looks as if the volunteers wanted to remain and that the mustering out will have to be by an arbitrary order. The troops when mustered out will be transported to their homes.

For Kentucky.—Partly cloudy weather, warmer; variable winds becoming southerly.

It is announced that the President has decided to appoint Mr. Fitzpatrick, a brother-in-law of Col. Colson, Assistant District Attorney for Kentucky. Senator Deboe, Congressman Pugh and Mr. Wilson lose out.

An Ohio Captain is the only American officer charged with cowardly conduct in the face of the enemy during the recent war. He is Captain Biddle, of Company C, Fourth Ohio. In one of the skirmishes in Puerto Rico he told his boys to run, and set them an example by skipping at a 240 gait. It is said he was finally found concealed in a culvert. His case is being investigated.

The Hon. John Henry Wilson thinks he knows all about the political outlook in this district, and he says Judge Pugh has a regular "soft snap" in the present race. Col. Frank Coles, of Ashland, doesn't agree with the Hon. John Henry, however, and Coles being a resident of the district ought to know just a little more about the situation than Mr. Wilson. Probably the Hon. John Henry was simply jolly Pugh in return for the latter's efforts to land him in the office of Assistant District Attorney.

PITHY POINTS.

The whisky habit directs men to the devil and directs the devil to men.

Roosevelt will probably be as hard to defeat in New York as he was in Cuba, should he offer for any office.

The thieves cornered the chicken market at Mt. Sterling before the camp meetings got a chance at them, it seems.

The innate modesty of Mark Hanna will doubtless assert itself now in his laying claim to having been an original war man.

As the war is now ended and so many have not had any chance to show their prowess, a greater rivalry than ever may now be looked for as to who are the rightful claimants to honors and achievements here and there.

There may be as much discussion as to who performed certain actions in this war as there was at the time of the Civil War as to who killed Zollicoffer, or the ancient interrogatory as to who struck Billy Patterson.

We suggest again that Cervera be called in to decide the matter between Schley and Sampson as to which put him and his fleet to so much inconvenience and discomfiture at Santiago. He would be the kind of witness that lawyers lay great stress by.

Mr. Sampson will now have to wait for another war before he can have a chance to show what he would have done had he and the New York only been at hand, and not somewhere else. In the meantime he may regain the strength of which he was short by Schley.

It's a good thing for the country that the war was waged somewhere else and not here, as there might have been some real made, like Morgan's through Ohio, where the Government liked better to have gotten through paying for eggs, butter and milk, impressed by the raiders from the farmers.

It's not very strange, when one gets to thinking about it, that there should have been a good big row during a fête at such a place as Brandywine, as these ingredients are particularly conducive to such a state of affairs. One who attended the fête says that enough shots were fired to kill fifty men, and he could not tell how some escaped the fate of being shot. As it was a good many were "shot in the neck."

Robbing the State.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 17.—A big steal in shoes that has been going on for months in the shoe factory in the penitentiary here was discovered to-day by Warden Lillard and his assistants, and the guilty persons will be punished.

Sam Davis, a negro convict from Woodford County, who has been regarded as the best prisoner in the pen, was the ringleader, and his testimony implicated several other prisoners and an ex-guard. Several hundred dollars' worth of shoes have been smuggled out and sold by the gang.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus writes W. C. Hannick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.

SELF-INVESTMENT.

Sermon Delivered By Rev. Dr. John Barbour, of Birmingham, Ala., at Louisville Recently.

[Courier-Journal, August 15th.]

The Rev. John Barbour, D. D., of Birmingham, Ala., was heard at the Fourth avenue Presbyterian Church yesterday morning on "Self-Investment and Its Reward." His text was: Luke vi., 38: "Give and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down and shaken together, and running over shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal, it shall be measured to you again." He spoke as follows:

There is a warmth of utterance here seldom discoverable in the sayings of Christ. There is a certain calmness and moderation usually to be observed in His speech, but here we detect almost the art and emphasis of the rhetorician. Here is a truth which stirred Christ to one of His most picturesque and energetic utterances. Now, to the motive of reward here introduced, and which is so criticised by men. Suffice it to say that it comes into the Christian system as it comes into all of life. The Bible puts all incentives to duty before us; the beauty of the true life in itself; self-respect; the results of our actions; the self-execution of law; the approval of God and of our fellows. And, as here, it even says: It pays to be good. And ought it not to pay? Ought not good to be rewarded? And if it is right, ought we not to know it? Must we not have the rounded truth to get the rounded life?

It is to be noted, however, that our Savior is not appealing to the selfishness of men in order to make recruits, but is announcing the law of action and reaction in the social life. There is a system of spiritual mechanics in society, a negative and a positive, a centrifugal and a centripetal, a give and a receive. In men's dealings with one another. This sermon on the Mount is full of it. "Judge not and ye shall not be judged." "Forgive and ye shall be forgiven." So the heart and the life, the tree and the fruit, the foundation and the house, giving and getting. Christ keeps these together, and what Christ has joined together let not man put asunder.

Everywhere we may observe illustrations of this law. Even in the commercial world it is the law of success. Money must be invested, and invested largely and fearlessly to bring in great returns. The merchant who deals on a large and liberal plan will generally have the trade. People like to deal with him; besides, he fits into a larger place, has a larger constituency, and so commands a larger business. You must venture to have.

It is also true that we get out of our social life about what we put into it. Generous judgment, kind and thoughtful ways will bring us generous and kindly estimation in return. Nor is this a vulgar "tit-for-tat." A suspicious habit reacts upon the man himself. You must give your heart to men if you expect to receive love from them. You may be intellectual, honorable, true and just, but no one will love you for these, because they see that you do not love them.

It is also the secret of happiness. Fine houses, gay equipages and elegant libraries do not make happy people. All these may make you very interesting; they may be very praiseworthy in themselves. But they can not make you happy. A more elegant selfishness is only a more insidious selfishness. The brightest-faced people, and the happiest-hearted are those who are looking after others. It is the outward glancing eye that is beautiful. My friends, it is so with the whole policy of life. The man who conceives life most largely, and deals most largely will have the largest success. Moreover, a thing given completely away in one's intentions is often most profitably invested. The return may, of course, be in something different. We do a service and we get a friend! We spend and we get the prayers of a good man. Who can tell the harvest that sometimes follows a wayside kindness? A kind word spoken at a church door, as a Sunday morning courtesy, as a piece of manners has tied many a young man to the House of God, and has brought blessings down upon your head. An encouragement given some struggling youth has sometimes reacted on the benefactor and all his family; for men strangely change places in this world. The benefactor becomes dependent; the poor boy is exalted among the princes. It's a good thing in mercantile principles to invest some of your earnings in an ardent boy or girl struggling for an education. One of the finest passages in the "Bonnie Brier Bush" is the appeal of Bomsie, the old schoolmaster, to the miser of the glen for help in the education of George Howe, and what a return it brought. Who that has ever looked upon the face of Geo. W. Childs has not marked the benign and happy look upon the countenance of the great editor who gave so much for the education of worthy boys and girls?

If it be hospitality you give, do not think it trouble mispent. You opened the prophet's chamber to some plain, unattractive man of God, and life has opened for you by His intercessions the very portals of Heaven. No honest labor for any soul to rescue or to teach it was ever thrown away. It bore fruit in aftertime in his heart and yours. This is the very law of things. Said Marc Antony at the ebb of his fortunes: "I've lost all but what I have given away." How many a man sitting amid the ashes of his fortune has lamented that more of that wasted wealth had not been invested in benevolence or on some spiritual design. What he has given to Christ, what he has invested in the culture of his soul endures. All else goes. As men convey their property by bills of exchange from country to country, let us put ourselves and our treasure into that which shall be transferred to our everlasting credit in heavenly wealth and heavenly character.

To Buy Seed Wheat.

Hon. Lucas Moore, State Commissioner of Agriculture, left Wednesday for Michigan to buy several hundred bushels of Northern seed wheat for distribution among the leading farmers of Kentucky this fall. The seed sent out last year by the State Department came from Michigan, and the reports from farmers all over the State who planted any of it were so flattering that the Commissioner decided to purchase more of the same quality this year. A list of the farmers to whom samples will be sent has already been made out. The seed will be sent out from Louisville about the last of the month.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES.

"Sunnyside," the Hospitable Home of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Osborne, the Scene of an Enjoyable Affair.

One of the most enjoyable events ever given in the Tuckahoe neighborhood was the reception tendered by Mrs. T. D. Osborne, at her beautiful home, "Sunnyside," to her many friends on Tuesday evening. The charming hostess, who has long been noted for her hospitality, was ably assisted in receiving by Miss Virginia Leggett, of Columbus, O., Miss Mary Norris, of Ripley, Miss Ethel Sparks, of Kansas City, and Mrs. Otis T. Green, of Ocala, Florida. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and evergreens, and amid a blaze of light moved the throng of fair women and their handsome escorts.

The features of the evening were the Presidential conundrums and the art gallery, a very laughable affair, in which each guest vied with the other to prove their talents as artists, and truly was he or she entitled to bear off the palm of victory who could recognize his or her own likeness in the many pictures which lined the walls.

At 10 o'clock the guests were ushered, to the strains of sweet music furnished by Miss Ethel Sparks and Miss Leggett, into the spacious dining hall where refreshments were served; after partaking of which the merry throng again indulged in games and music until the wee small hours of night when they bid their hostess farewell and departed from a scene which will long be remembered by them as one of the brightest spots in their lives. Among the invited guests were:

Miss Ethel Sparks, of Kansas City; Miss Virginia Leggett, of Columbus, Ohio; Miss Bertie Badger and sister, Mrs. Otis T. Green, of Ocala, Florida; Miss Mary Norris, of Ripley; Mr. Alex. Osborne, of Kansas City; Mr. Nelson Crowder, of Virginia; Mr. Richard Holton, of Indianapolis; the Misses Jean Holton, Retta Smoot, Rella, Ora and Ida Osborne, Martha and Frances Lou Bouldin, Della and Lida Bacon, Bessie Perrine and Amie Osborne; Messrs. Thomas and Tyre Holton, Tide Bacon, William Bouldin, Ben Picket, William Osborne, Gill Smoot, Robert Loderback, Perrine and Lee Osborne, Dr. Charles Smoot, Messrs. Leslie and Harry Smoot.

A FAIR.

Maysville May Have One the Latter Part of September.

Maysville may have a fair after all this fall.

Several of our leading citizens have interested themselves in the matter, and if the merchants and other business men of the city will do their part the fair will be a certainty.

Premiums of $50 or $100 each for the finest displays of farm products from Mason and also from each of the adjoining counties would create such a rivalry among the farmers in the respective counties that it would insure one of the biggest exhibitions of the kind ever seen in this section. Suppose it be tried just once anyhow, and see how it works.

The parties interested in getting up the fair will start on our business men in the next few days.

THURSDAY morning two wandering musicians, a man and boy, struck Maysville. The elder gave the name of Harold Sewald, and said his companion was his son. During the forenoon Constable Wells arrested Sewald on information from Vanceburg charging him with stealing some shoes. In the afternoon Wells was called to Moransburg, and turned the prisoner over to Constable Dawson to be taken back to Vanceburg. While the party were near the Cooper Building on Front waiting for the train, the lad called Mr. Dawson to one side, to talk to him. Sewald seized the opportunity and skipped up the alley, making his escape. It was the first time a prisoner ever turned such a trick on Constable Dawson.

NEVER HEARD OF HER.

A Woman Claiming Johnson as Her Home Works a New Scheme at Flemingsburg.

Flemingsburg Times-Democrat: "Wednesday morning a large, middle-aged woman, with a little girl got off the train from Maysville at Johnson and came to this place. After breakfast she made the rounds of the town with a paper setting forth the alleged facts that her name was Davis, that her husband had recently died of consumption at Johnson, that she had heart disease and could do nothing but bottom chairs for a living, and that she wanted to raise enough money to buy the material for the work. Quite a lot of 25-cent contributions were on the list, and her receipts here amounted to from $6 to $10. She took the afternoon train for Carlisle to see if the suckers would bite there as freely as they did here. Johnson people never heard of her before."

STRANGLED TO DEATH.

A Negro Murderer Hanged in Kentucky.

HE MURDERED A SMALL BOY.

Said He Mistook His Little Victim For Another Person With Whom He Had Had Trouble Some Time Previously.

Stanford, Ky., Aug. 19.—George Stephenson, colored, was hanged here at 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning.

In 23½ minutes Stephenson, who killed Joe Tilford, was pronounced dead by Drs. C. M. Thompson and W. B. O'Bannon. His neck was not broken, owing to the stretching of the rope. He died of strangulation.

He was not the least excited, and, after walking to the gallows unsupported, he spoke several minutes in a clear voice, telling how his sins had been washed away. Threats by negroes amounted to nothing, and nothing unexpected happened.

On the afternoon of July 4, 1898, at a flag-raising at Crab Orchard, Lincoln county, George Stephenson, on coming out of a saloon, and without a word of warning, shot to death Joe Tilford, a white boy, 13, firing five shots, three of which struck him.

Stephenson claimed that he mistook Tilford for another boy with whom he had had a row, and who threatened to kill him. He was baptized in a bath tub in jail a few days ago.

LUCIEN YOUNG

Tells of the Bombardment of Manzanilla in a Personal Letter—A Brave Kentuckian.

(Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.)

One of the most noted of the younger officers of the navy, noted for his excellent seamanship, his fighting qualities and his personal bravery, Commander Lucien Young, has just been heard from in a letter addressed to Major Felix Rosenberg, of the Eighth United States Volunteer Infantry, an extract of which appears below. Commander Young's most recent exploit was while executive officer of the San Francisco, when he jumped overboard in a gale in the Mediterranean and held up two seamen who had been swept overboard until the ship could be put about and boats launched—nearly an hour. Commander Young is a Kentuckian, his mother and brother living at Lexington.

UNITED STATES SHIP HIST.
OFF. MANZANILLA, CUBA, AUG. 3.

I suppose you have seen by the papers that I have confirmed all your flattering predictions. Ever since my arrival on the station I have been in it up to the neck and hope to get there still more before the Dons throw up. I was in command at the sight of the 30th of June at this place and, with three vessels, I went in close and engaged nine of the enemy, besides three forts and several thousand men playing on me. I got hit eleven times by shot and shell and pitted with small arms. One of my vessels got her steam pipe cut, yet for one hour and forty minutes we faced the music and did not lose a man, while, according to their accounts, we killed 180 and wounded great numbers of them and we sunk two gunboats, one storeship and a transport with soldiers.

Unfortunately, the destruction of Cervera's fleet fell so close upon this that we did not get our full share of credit. I also took part in the chase round the forts and had a hand in the destruction of Cervera's fleet. Since then for a while I was in the cable cutting and then took part in the bombardment of Manzanilla, where we destroyed five gunboats, one storeship and three transports; again, the bombardment of Santa Cruz, Jucaro and Tunis. I just returned from my visit to the insurgents' headquarters, back from here, and if all goes well I expect to tackle a fort over here and make the Cubans come in on the war. I have a fine ship, an excellent battery of ten guns, a good and loyal set of officers and fighting crew, and can lick any Spanish twice my size. Come down with your immunes and show us what stuff you are made of. Yours sincerely,
LUCIEN YOUNG.

They Love a Fire.

"There are many men in London who have a positive craze for witnessing fires," said an old fireman to the writer, "and they are ready to start at a moment's notice in any direction when news of a fire reaches them. Of course they are men whose time is their own, and many of them are 'west end swells.'"

"But the craze isn't as fashionable as it was in my younger days. Why, in the early seventies there wasn't a club in the west end that hadn't got its 'fire mandais,' as they were called, and there was a regular system of messengers to carry the news of a big conflagration. It was the Prince of Wales who set the fashion, and whenever there was a big blaze he was always there with Lord Amberley or some other friend of similar tastes. No distance was too great and no night too dark or stormy to keep them away, and I've been told that some of them had records of hundreds of fires, from an oilshop to the big blaze at the Alexandra palace. The prince lost his taste for this kind of excitement long ago, but there are dozens of the younger 'bloods' who wouldn't miss a big fire for anything."

—London Standard.

A WOMAN never really knows the meaning of happiness and content until she is the mother of a healthy, happy child. The health of the child depends on the health of the mother, both before and after birth. Most all of women's weakness and particularly the weakness that most strongly influences the health of children, comes from some derangement or disease of the distinctly feminine organs. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure trouble of this nature. It should be taken regularly by every woman during the entire period of gestation. It gives strength to all the organs involved, lessens the pain of childbirth and insures the health of both mother and child.
